

Nicole Wolbers

Curator of European sparkling wine culture

Editorial · Speaking · Moderation · Education

— 01

Positioning

Nicole Wolbers is a German sparkling wine specialist, moderator, educator and editorial curator dedicated exclusively to sparkling wine. Her work combines independent journalism, international speaking, wine education and industry dialogue. Rather than focusing on a single region, she connects producers, trade professionals and consumers through stories that explain how sparkling wine reflects culture, craftsmanship and innovation across Europe.

— 02

Expertise

- German Sekt and the renaissance of premium sparkling wine
 - Italian sparkling wines: Prosecco DOC, Garda DOC, Trentodoc, Franciacorta, Alta Langa and emerging categories
 - Cava & Corpinnat (Certified Cava Educator)
 - Crémant, Champagne and international sparkling wine trends
 - Sustainability, wine tourism and consumer education
-

— 03

Editorial Perspective

Founder & Editor-in-Chief of Schaumweinmagazin, Germany's independent publication dedicated exclusively to sparkling wine. Recent editorial work includes analyses of Italy's changing sparkling wine landscape, Garda DOC Crémant, Prosecco DOC Low Alcohol, Toscana IGT Spumante, German Sekt, VDP Sekt, Crémant de Loire, Light Strike and premium sparkling wine trends.

— 04

Speaking & Industry

Selected activities include international masterclasses, moderation of wine events, Circle of Wine Writers webinar, Spanish Pantry Festival, SparklingB!, wine judging and educational programmes. Recognised as Germany's first 'Sektbotschafterin des Jahres' (Sparkling Wine Ambassador of the Year).

— 05

Ways to Collaborate

- Conference keynote speaker
 - Panel moderation
 - International masterclasses
 - Educational programmes
 - Editorial collaborations
 - Industry roundtables
 - Producer interviews
 - Consultancy for sparkling wine communication
-

— CONTACT

www.nicolewolbers.com

Founder & Editor-in-Chief — Schaumweinmagazin

DipWSET · Certified Cava Educator